The stated purpose of the Coastal Coalition was to support the protection and restoration of the Louisiana Coast. The files provided to me indicate that there has been little or no activity within the Coastal Coalition since approximately 2004, and there is $5,873.46 in a bank account located at Gulf Coast Bank in Abbeville.

The Police Jury here in Vermilion is requesting that the Coastal Coalition be dissolved or that Vermilion be allowed to withdraw from same and that the funds in the bank be refunded to the respective Parishes.

Please present this to your Parish Government and provide Vermilion with a response as to how your Parish would like to proceed.

Mr. LaGrange stated that Mr. Duplantis contacted the Assistant District Attorney in Vermilion Parish and reported that the Coalition was formed with 17 Parishes. Due to the fact that the Coalition has little or no activity, it is the recommendation that the Parish Council take action to agree to dissolve the Coastal Coalition and that the Parish's share of the $5,873.46 be reimbursed to the Parish.
